

TIMOTHY GILL, CFE

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

CERTIFIED FRAUD EXAMINER | FORTUNE 500 LOSS PREVENTION SPECIALIST | SUBJECT MATTER EXPERT-NATIONAL SECURITY

Timothy Gill is a seasoned Senior Executive and Intelligence-Security Advisor with more than 30 years of success across the crisis and consequence management communities in the public and private sector. Tim is the founding member of Specter Security Group, LLC (A Service Disabled Veteran Owned Company) specializing in protective intelligence, private investigations and executive protection services for specialty C-Suite clientele. As an active member of the National Association of Corporate Directors, American Society of Industrial Security, Association of Former Intelligence Officers and Association of Certified Fraud Examiners, Mr. Gill regularly advises industry executives on proactive measures to mitigate risk and prevent loss on critical business equities.

Leveraging extensive experience analyzing and mitigating risks for the U.S. Government, Tim serves as a valuable asset for C-Suite executives and corporations seeking to mitigate over-the-horizon risks to critical assets.

Throughout his executive career, Timothy held leadership positions at the FBI, CIA, EPA including 12 years managing joint FBI-CIA operations against international terrorism. Tim is a recipient of two CIA awards for his dedicated leadership in the takedown of two international terrorism leaders sought by the U.S. Government. During Tim's FBI tenure, he served as an expert witness for the U.S. Attorney's Office in Washington D.C. and Philadelphia in the prosecution of Al-Qaeda WMD Operative Ali Saleh Al-Marri and an U.S. based Iranian sleeper agent Mohommad Vaghari. In private industry, Mr. Gill applied his joint leadership skills in the protection of several Fortune 500 executives and entertainment personalities all the while managing private sector protective intelligence teams in mitigating risks to corporate brands and the personal welfare of several C-Suite executives.

Tim also worked for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), serving on the White House Core Group on WMD Terrorism, and managing remedial oversight operations at abandoned hazardous waste sites. His expertise in CERCLA/Superfund cases rests with conducting intensive potentially responsible party investigations in support of both U.S. EPA General Counsel and private sector entities such as Kennecott Utah Copper. Tim authored several U.S. EPA studies and was a multi recipient of the U.S. EPA Bronze Medal. During his tenure at the U.S. EPA, he represented the agency at the 1996 Summer Olympics and the Central Intelligence Agency in combatting environmental terrorism and sabotage of critical infrastructure.

Currently, Tim serves as a Senior National Security Advisor at CSRA Inc. in support of overseas Department of Defense operations designed to counter the threat of illicit weapons proliferation. Concurrent with these efforts, Tim designs and teaches courses on behavioral analysis, crisis and consequence management response and intelligence analysis. Tim is responsible for authoring numerous counterterrorism exercises designed to shape public and private industry thought processes in mitigating over the horizon risks. Timothy also co-founded a successful private security firm, Specter Security Group, LLC (SSG) - a disabled veteran-owned company--focused on serving multi-variant clients with protective intelligence, tactical training and downrange executive protection. Timothy regularly advises media outlets on national security, intelligence and security issues as well as several private equity investment firms on business intelligence matters. As a thought leader in his field, Timothy continues to advise many public and private sector CEO's, organizations and governments around the world on critical security issues.